With the hope that our goals will be reached, we dedicate the 1956 Capri to our futures.

It's June again - the end of another school year - although for many of us it is the completion of our high school education. Here at Mumford we have had many opportunities to train for good citizenship. We have had many chances to exercise our obligations democratically; we have had freedom to choose courses, to choose representatives for our school government, and finally to choose friends. We have been guided by an understanding faculty in modern surroundings with excellent educational facilities. At this time, we face the serious and challenging problem of what to do next. These past years are the key that will help open the door of our futures. What does this future hold in store for us? It holds jobs, marriages, service in the Armed Forces, or college. We are free to make the choice we want and we are limited only by our capabilities and our ambitions.

"Age, out of heart, impatient sighed:—
I ask what will the future be?"
Youth laughed contentedly, and cried:—
The future leave to me!" —Florence Earle Coates

The road to graduation, travelled by our Mustangs, was one of varied experiences. Though much of high school was a challenge, students surmounted the difficult and bounced back from the discouraging. At this point on the road, graduates can look back over those adventures that are a joy to remember.

"The Future Is A World Limited by Ourselves"

The January Steering Committee under the sponsorship of Mr. John McDaid, mathematics instructor, and Miss Margaret Doherty, of the Foreign Language Department, guided the senior class through the election of its officers. These fourteen seniors were selected as representatives from their respective study halls. From this, the class went on to successfully complete its senior activities.

June Steering Committee Outlined Senior Activities

Prior to the election of senior class officers, the June Steering Committee guided the seniors through their first activities. Their major job was to set up the system for electing class officers. These early efforts were a contributing factor to the later successful commencement activities. This Committee, chosen on their counselors' recommendations, was supervised by Miss Margaret Doherty and Mr. John McDaid.

Journeying through school, a Mustang joined organizations which appealed to his individual interests and hobbies. Mumford's twenty-five clubs, which were always anxious for new members, were sponsored by the faculty and provided Mumfordites with fun, companionship, and the chance to perform many school services.

I.M.S.S.C. Promoted Sportsmanship Throughout

To promote good sportsmanship throughout Mumford was the purpose of the Intra-Metropolitan Student Sportsmanship Sub Council. Supervised by Mr. John Ruddon of the Social Studies Department, the I.M.S.S.C. co-operated with the city-wide organization and was responsible for flying the school's I.M.S.S.C. flag. This flag denoted Mumford's practice of good sportsmanship in all the athletic activities of our school.

Selling "M" pins, sponsoring the "Touchdown Tromp", which honored Mumford's football team, and encouraging school spirit through pep rallies were their main functions.

Current Affairs Club Debated Political Issues

To further enlighten students on current political affairs and give them training for possible entry into the field of politics were the purposes of the Current Affairs Club.

Sponsored by Mr. Melvin Weisz, social studies instructor, the club sponsored a political symposium to which the entire student body was invited. Their other activities included a visit to the new City-County Building, guest speakers and an annual trip to the State Capitol at Lansing. There, they were given an opportunity to meet the Governor, watch the Legislature in action and see the various official buildings.

Outstanding Journalists Honored By Quill and Scroll Society

Membership in Quill and Scroll, an honorary society for high school journalists, was secured by students who did outstanding work on Mumford's yearbook and school newspaper. International in scope, the society encourages and rewards individual achievement in journalism and its related fields.

In order to be selected, these students had to be seniors with a scholastic standing in the upper one third of their class. In addition, they had to obtain a recommendation from their individual sponsor for having done superior work in the field of journalism. This recommendation also had to be approved by the secretary of the National Quill and Scroll Society.

Students in Office Co-op, Mamselles, and Future Retailers

Under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Soltesz of the Commercial Department, the Office Co-op provided an opportunity for students interested in the business world to gain experience by working in offices. Through this plan, members received school credit, business training, and a salary.

Sponsored by Mrs Helen Sloney, commercial teacher, the Mamselles studied the different phases of retailing with particular emphasis on clothes' fashion. Among the activities of this club were a behind the scenes trip through the J. L. Hudson Company, listening to speakers from well-known modeling school, and a spring fashion show.

Explored the Various Phases of the Business World

An affiliate of the Retail Merchants of Detroit, the Future Retailers was sponsored by Miss Edith Bunn, commercial instructor. Meeting daily as a class, they received school credit for attending classes in the morning and for working in local retail stores in the afternoon.

Various activities of this group included participation in city wide contests, attending a retailing convention at the University of Michigan, and participating in a dinner at the Statler Hotel, given in honor of their employers.

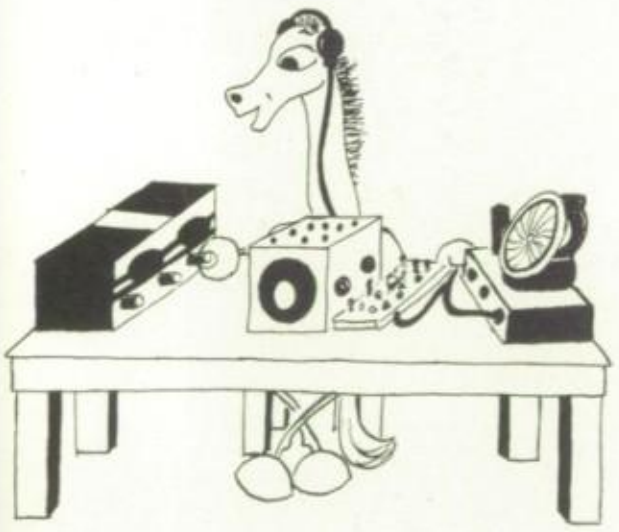
"Spotlight on Mumford." This phrase marked the beginning of each Monday morning news broadcast over Mumford's public address system. These programs, given during the record room periods, included all important school announcements.

Under the supervision of Mr. Earl Matthews, English instructor, the Broadcasters' Club made tape-recordings for the school's audio library. Included was their major production of "Snow Goose."

Debby Linderman cues the music as announcer Pauline Ornstein and newscasters, Keneth Lynn and Bob Shaye, begin the Monday morning broadcast.

Stuart Bloom and Eric von Valtier are transmitting to New Zealand as David Cutler confirms the transmission.

Communicated with The World



W8GMP were the call letters of the Radio Club whose members studied the method of short wave communication. After discussing the codes and theories of communication, the club, with its sponsor, Mr. Maxwell Hutchinson, social studies head, constructed and used short wave receivers and transmitters.

During this past year the Radio Club increased its power, constructed a new transmitter and communicated with licensed stations all over the world.

Library Staff Maintained Efficiency in the Mumford Library

Under the guidance of Mrs. Marie Webster and Miss Nona Duffy, school librarians, members of the Library Staff gained valuable experience in the running of a library by managing general circulation of Mumford's library books. In addition to performing an indispensable service to the faculty and students, the members received two and one half hours of credit in the library science course.

During this past year, the group visited The Detroit News and saw both the specialized library, which is one of the largest of its type in the country, and the huge press rooms.

Latin Clubs Acquired an Romance Languages

Through interesting movies and informative discussions, the Latin Club, under the guidance of Dr. Edith Kovach, Language head, acquainted students with the classic civilization of ancient Greece and Rome.

This year club members were entertained with talks by Dr. Kovach about her various travels to Greece, Italy and Spain. Roman games, movies, slide lectures and an annual Saternalia, a Latin Christmas party, highlighted their activities.

Study and Practice Aided Prospective Educators

To interest and acquaint Mumford students with a career in teaching was the purpose of the Future Teachers' Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Marion Kelly. This organization was a junior affiliate of the National Education Association.

At their bi-monthly meetings the members were shown the various phases of teaching through movies and guest speakers. Their activities varied from spending an enjoyable day observing and attending lectures at Wayne University to cadet teaching at various schools in this vicinity wherein the members received actual experience in working with children.

Heavy Concentration Typified Chess Club Sessions

Using internationally recognized rules and scoring methods, the Mumford Chess Club met once a week for two hours, their sole purpose to play chess. For this reason the club designated a separate time for business meetings.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Harold Davis, mathematics instructor, the group developed a national rating for each of its members and played several tournaments against other high school chess clubs.

Members of The Science and Explored

Stimulating interest in science was the main purpose of the Science Club. This club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Samuel Ascher, science instructor, performed unusual and advanced experiments which were displayed to a group of science instructors from all parts of the country. The conference with these men, prominent in the field of science, highlighted the club's activities. This year the club also took various scientific field trips, including a visit to the Dow Chemical Company.

Letter Winners Received Recognition in the "M" Club

"Good sportsmanship and service to our school" was the motto of the M-Club. Sponsored by coaches, Harold Grove, Paul Bernd, George Cairns, Jim Kelly, and Stanley Mullin, the club strove to develop good sportsmanship at Mumford.

Membership in this group was open to any boy who had been awarded a letter in an organized sport played at Mumford. In addition, club membership was considered a reward for school service.

Brotherhood—Theme of Human Relations Club

Under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Perron, social studies teacher, and Mr. Paul Kerber, vocational instructor, the Human Relations Club collected and distributed canned goods to welfare associations to be used in Thanksgiving baskets for needy families.

Striving to promote brotherhood in our daily lives here at Mumford, this organization sponsored the program marking Brotherhood Week. Listed on their agenda were movies on racial problems, special speakers and trips to various settlement houses.

Members were active participants in the Junior Round Table which included students from various high schools working toward the improvement of human relations.

Practice in the Drama Club Developed Acting Ability

Under the sponsorship of Miss Dorothy Patterson, English instructor, the Drama Club was organized to further understanding and appreciation of dramatic literature and the living theater among Mumford students. Membership in the club was obtained by auditioning and their selection was based upon dramatic ability.

The presentation of the semi-annual school plays were among the numerous activities of the Drama Club. The members also produced a variety show in co-operation with the music department. In addition they did several one-act plays during the semester to further develop their stage presence.

Presidents Promoted Harmony Among Clubs

Publicizing all individual club activities was the purpose of the Club Presidents' Committee. The committee, under the guidance of Mr. Norman Burkhardt, attendance teacher, was a subsidiary of the Student Council and served as a sounding board for club problems or ideas. This club also served as an organizer which enabled the individual clubs in school to work together.

Under the leadership of Nan Scholnick, vice-president of the Student Council, the group's main project this year was the publication of student handbooks.

Active in making this organization a success are Nan Scholnick, Bill Goodman, Geraldine Weiner, Stuart Bloom, Dale Teitelbaum, Bill Laidley, Reid Ashton, Gary Beckerman, and Barbara Steinberg.

Participation in extra-curricular activities was one of the high spots in our high school journey. Mustangs had an opportunity to develop their individual interests in an atmosphere of fun and companionship. They spent many hours of work to put out the yearbook, write for the school paper, serve on the student council, sing in the choruses and play in instrumental groups.

Year's Highlights

To provide Mumford students with a permanent record of the year's events was the goal of the Capri Editorial Staff, under the supervision of Mr. Charles Kaufman, English instructor.

Preparation of such an enterprise as the Capri required the writing of much copy and selecting from over 1000 pictures the scenes that best depicted the activities, clubs, athletics, school functions and other events that made Mumford history during the past year. The staff also planned the photo assignments and processed the major portion of the photos used.

The Capri Business Staff, under the supervision of Mr. Jay Bodzin, commercial instructor, was responsible for selling yearbook advertisements to the various retailers in the city. They kept the accurate records of all Capri sales and distributed the book in June.

The staff's varied financial duties included the perusal of printing contracts, paying óf supply bills, collecting time payment contracts and publicizing both the fall and spring sales campaigns.

New Editorial Policy

Initiating a new publication plan, The Mercury became a bi-weekly paper with two complete staffs. They were composed of journalism students, sponsored by Mr. Vaughn Hoogasian, English instructor.

The business staff, under the direction of Mr. John Meng, English instructor, guided the sales campaigns and obtained advertisements for the publication.

To gain new ideas and experience, members of the staff visited press conferences at both the University of Michigan and Wayne University Journalism Departments.

In addition, the Mercury staff competed with the Student Council in the sale of their Goodfellow edition. Together, the organizations battled to recapture the little blue jug, previously won by Redford. The money collected in their combined campaign was donated to the Goodfellow Fund.

Voice of The Student Body

Under the guidance of Mr. Norman Burkhardt, Miss Janet DeBorst, Mr. Lewis Millman, Mrs. Zelda Pollinger and Mr. John Woolever, the council sponsored elections, dances, student exchanges and the local Torch Drive. By the promotion of these extra-curricular functions the council encouraged school spirit and improved student-faculty relations.

Sandy Schrut is loyally supported by Harriet Lett, and Carole Valinsky in her campaign for student council office.

Elaine Kolodin, Nan Scholnick, and Barbara Goldsmith personify the aims of the Student Council at last spring's Student Day.

Instrumentalists Promoted

Working on a full schedule throughout the year, the Mumford orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Jerome Stassen, performed at the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts, plays, commencement exercises and other school activities. The orchestra accompanied the various ensembles and vocal groups. Each member had an opportunity to receive a letter in music as well as two and one half hours of credit.

While improving their musical talents under professional instruction, students in the Mumford orchestra also developed an appreciation for fine orchestral music.

Musical Enthusiasm

Outstanding in Mumford's music education department is the band, directed by Mr. Roger Haskins. Among their performances were the Spring and Christmas Concerts, accompaniment at plays, rallies, athletic functions and various other school activities. Meeting daily as a class, the band had the opportunity to earn a letter in music in addition to receiving two and one half hours credit.

The purpose of this organization was to give students an appreciation and understanding of the values of band music. Any student who had some music background could join for the experience and pleasure that the band offered.

Promising Mumford Singers Chose from Many Vocal Opportunities

The choral organizations' performances at the Spring Concert, Winter Music Festival, and other community functions provided lively and harmonious entertainment for the Mumford student body. Under the direction of Miss Grace Engel, music instructor, vocalists learned the fundamentals of group singing and had an opportunity to develop individually.

Meeting daily as a class, the members of the Girls' Glee Club, which is open to all students, earned two and one half hours credit. The Chorus, consisted of upper classmen, while the Concert Choir was composed of advanced singers.

Ensembles Shone in Mumford's Music Department

Under the direction of Mr. Jerome Stassen and Miss Grace Engel, music instructors, the string and vocal ensembles specialized in performances at the Spring Concert, Winter Music Festival and radio broadcasts. Also among their activities was the furnishing of background music at various other programs.

Students who had vocal ability or played a string instrument were eligible for one of these musical groups.

Stage Staff Assisted in Auditorium Productions

Preparing the auditorium for concerts, plays, assemblies and other activities was the duty of the Stage Staff, supervised by Mr. Howard Mehr, Mumford's technician. In addition to setting up the stage, the staff operated the lights and checked the audio-visual equipment at all auditorium programs.

Through the services of this staff, Mumford's auditorium equipment was kept in operating condition.

Mumford Dramatists Presented "Time Out For Ginger"

The spring play, "Time Out for Ginger" by Ronald Alexander, was received by enthusiastic Mumfordites. The lighthearted comedy involved the amusing antics following a teen-aged girl's decision to play on the school football team. The sets for the presentation were designed and constructed by the Stage Staff under the direction of Mr. Howard Mehr, technician.

This year, tradition was broken by giving a single performance on Friday, April 27, 1956. In past years the play has been presented on two evenings.

After a long day of travelling on the winding and sometimes bumpy road, many Mustangs found athletics a most welcome stop. This was no idle pause where they could catch their breath and recover from the day's journey, for every minute of their time was spent practicing hard and learning to earn victories and to accept defeats.

Surprising Mustangs

Climaxing their season with a hard fought and tense 7-6 win over U of D was an exciting finish for Mumfords' surprising 1955 football team.

Picked by the experts to finish in or near the bottom of their division, the Mustangs, led by coaches Harold Grove and James Kelly, came through with a 5-1-1 record. This enabled them to finish in runner-up spot in the West Side League.

The lone defeat of the season at the hands of the Northwestern team cost the Mustangs an undefeated season.

1st Boys' Basketball Team

Victories over Mackenzie and Cody enabled Mumford's boys' basketball team in this, their first year of competition, to start on a high note. Five games, however, elapsed before the Cagers, coached by Stanley Mullin, again tasted victory as they defeated Redford and Eastern in succession.

Qualifying for the city playoffs, the team met and defeated Eastern in the first round of the tournament, but then lost to Northeastern to close out their schedule.

Mumford swimmers learn the importance of good starts.

Improvement Marked Swimmers' 1st Season

Handicapped by lack of experience in the early part of the season, Mumford's first boys swimming team, coached by Mr. George Cairns, rallied for victories in their last two meets, to finish with a three won, five lost record.

The team began its season with a loss to Mackenzie, the eventual city champion. After a victory over Central, there followed consecutive defeats in meets with Cody, Western, Redford, and Cooley. Then came the closing victories over Southwestern and Chadsey.

"For the first year of competition, I'd say our record was pretty good," stated Coach Cairns.

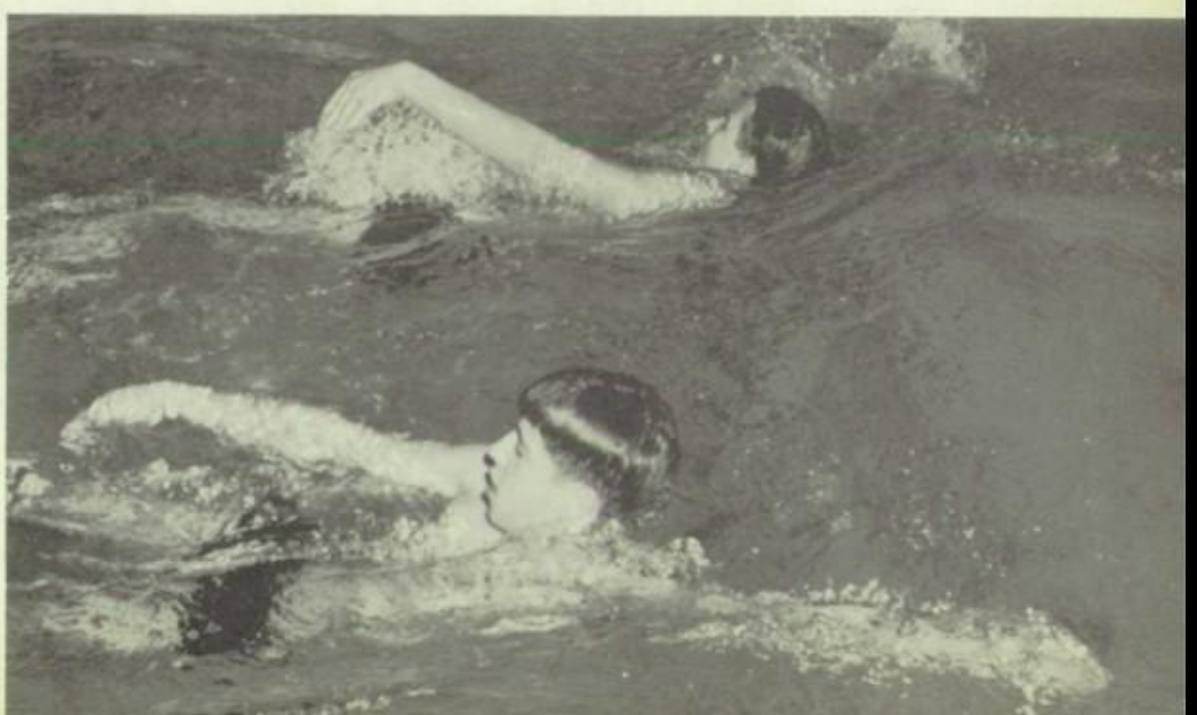
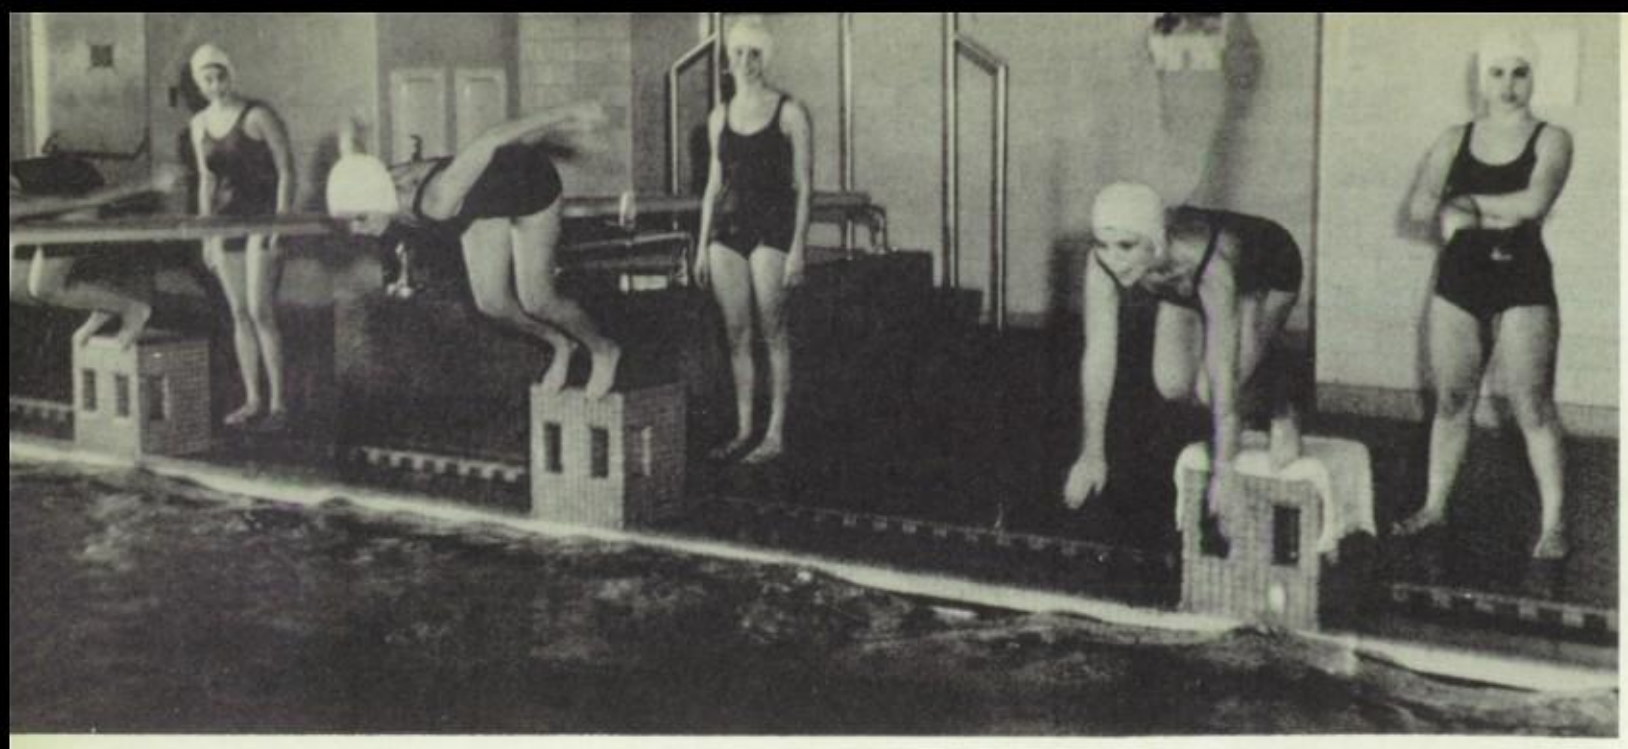
We know it's confusing but it's only Fred Prime doing a back dive.

Norman Cohn and Reid Ashton race against the clock.





Andrea Waxman, Diane Finkel, Elaine Ash, Gloria Brown, and Sue Stein start 100 yard relay practice.

Girls' Swimming Team Chosen Through Intramural Competitio

Of the one hundred and fifty girls from seven study halls who participated in an intramural swimming contest, thirty-five were chosen to become members of the varsity swimming team. This program lasted for a month and ended with the presentation of a banner to study hall 101, the intramural champs.

The newly formed team, according to coach Lois Holland, was a well balanced squad which produced standouts in almost every event from back stroke to diving.

Row One: Miss Lois Holland, coach; J. Rodman, mgr; C. Goode S. Crawford, S. Sofferin, B. Breman, S. Bez, S. Goodman, mgrs.; M. May, mgr.

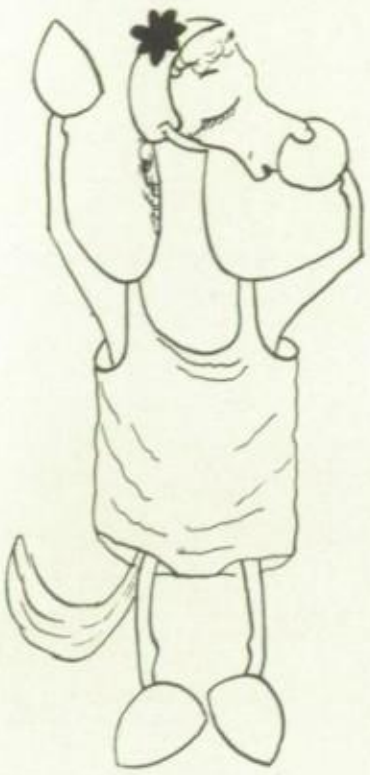
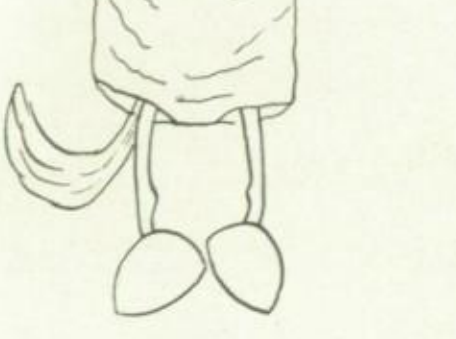
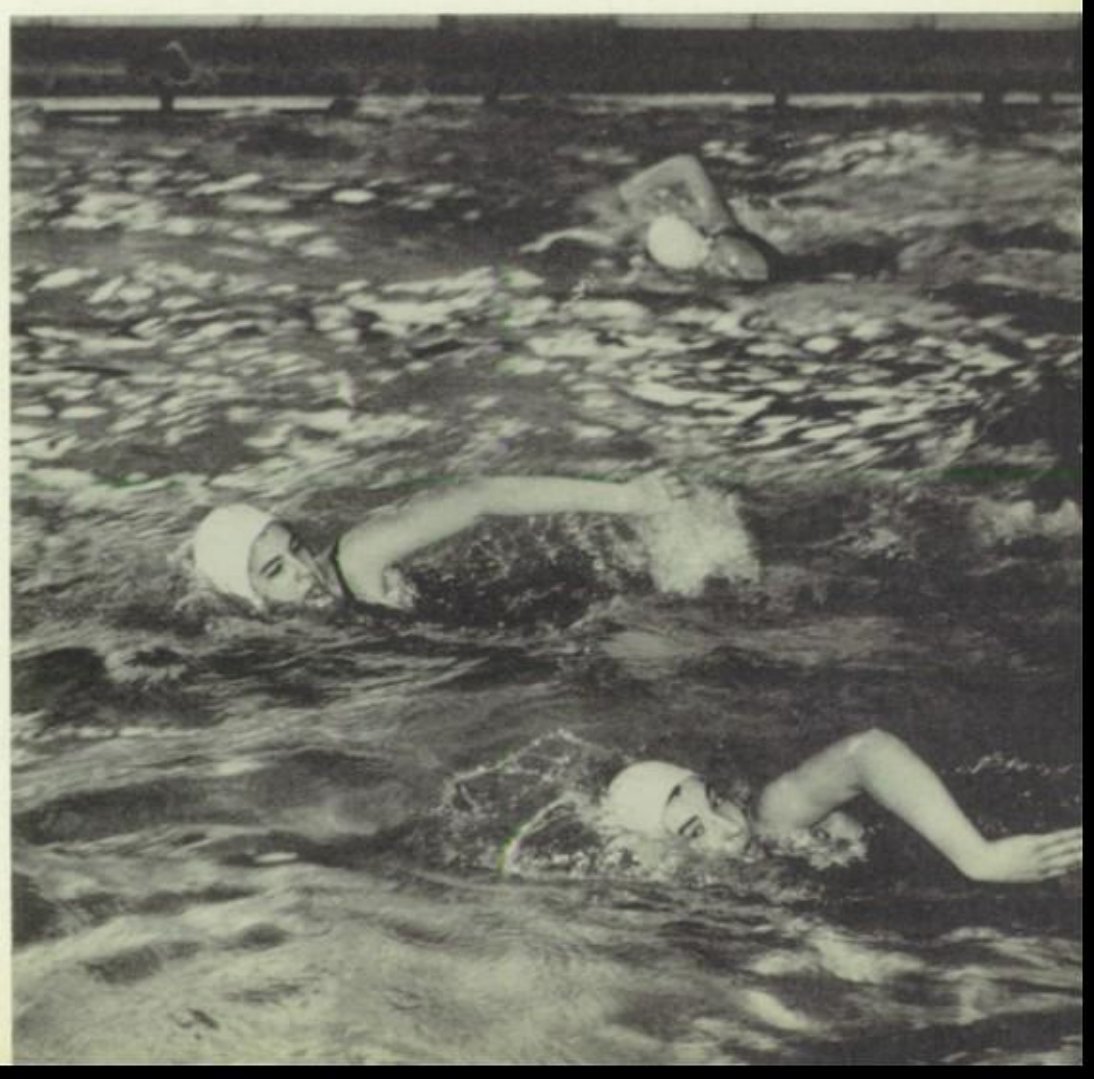
Row Four: S. Spertner, S. Lippitt, S. Zahler, G. Samuels, A. Waxman, D. Finkel, M. Stein, J. Stein, A. Lezell, J. Bizer, S. Ager.





Sarah Lipitt tries for a ten-pointer.

Annette Lezell and Geta Aaron come up for a breather.



Tennis Teams Netted

Helena Brown drives deep into cross court.

With only one defeat to mar its record, Mumford's girls' tennis team completed its fourth season. The lone defeat was administered by Cody in the next to the last match of the year.

Though held to ties by Highland Park and Redford, the team, coached by Miss Marie Pauli, proved too strong for Cody, Central, Western, Pershing and Southwestern.

Outstanding among the victories were the two over Central and Southwestern in which Mumford did not lose a single match.

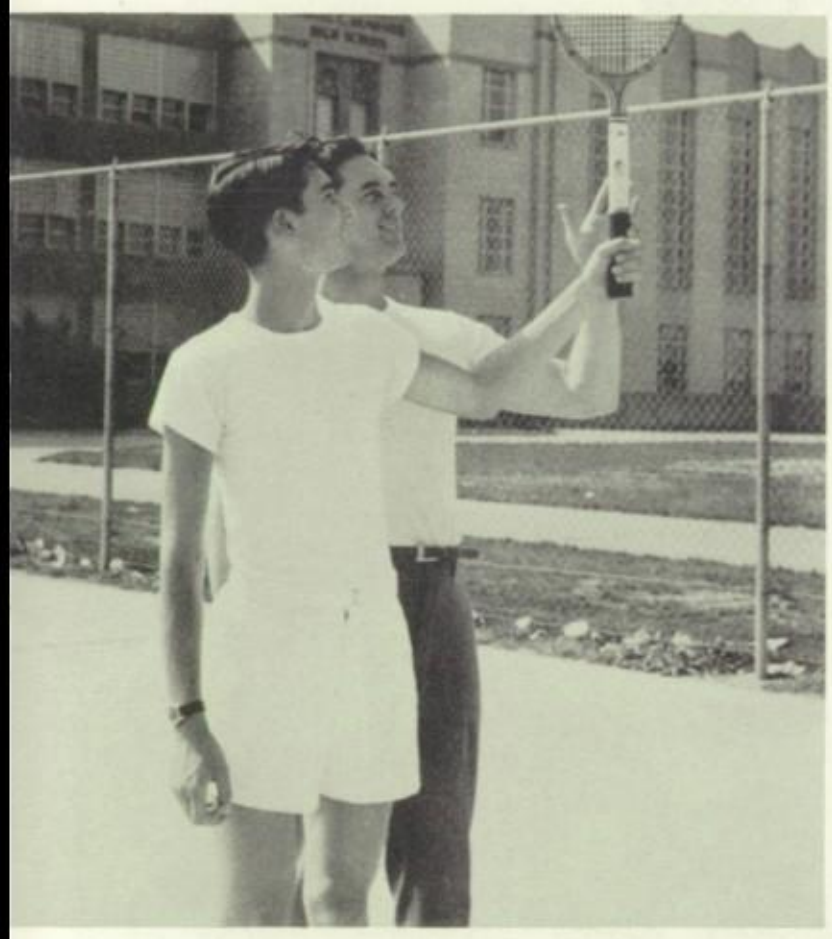
Winning Season

Ray Jacobs and Alan Croll are congratulated on their doubles victory by Sandy Porvin and Paul Fried.

Coach Mullin demonstrates service grip.



Led by co-captains, Alan Croll and Ray Jacobs and coached by Mr. Stan Mullin, Mumford started its season by defeating Cody, Western, Southwestern and Mackenzie in succession. Redford, the city champ, handed Mumford its first defeat of the season and the second defeat was to Cooley.

When the City Championship was still in sight our netmen lost this hard fought battle to Cooley, three matches to two. Since Cooley and Mumford had tied for second place in the West Side Division, this match eliminated Mumford from the City playoffs.

Row two: R. Jacobs, M. Portner, P. Fried, J. Levin, G. Theophelis, D. Castleman, S. Weiner, S. Mullin, coach.

Mumford Golfers Mixed

"Wha hoppen?" wonders Beverly Stein as Susan Sofferin fails to sink putt.

Row two: B. Stein, L. Greenberg, L. Hartstein, D. Zechman, J. Jones, M. Pauli, coach.

"It's more interesting this way," stated Miss Marie Pauli, girls' golf coach, referring to the change in the scoring method used at the girls' meets. The change from medal to match play now allows a player to win her match even if her opponent has a lower total score, if she wins more individual holes.

Under this system the girls defeated Highland Park in the season's opener but then suffered a loss to Redford. Downing Cody, Cooley and Hamtramck they finished the season with a four-one record.

Fun with Practice

Sympathizing with the unfortunate predicament of Sandy Shapiro are Stuart Teal, Peter Sidlow and Martin Summers.

"I was robbed!" complains Robert Karbel as Robert Kane and Myron Samovitz look on.

After dropping its first two matches, Mumford's 1955 golf team won their next eight meets, and finished with a fourth place in the city championships held at North Hills.

Mumford, coached by Mr. Paul Bernd, defeated Mackenzie, Cody, Cooley, and Eastern, twice each, blanking Eastern on both occasions. Before starting on its winning streak, the team was defeated twice by U of D.

The fourth place finish in the city championships marked the third consecutive year in which the golf team has placed among the top four.

Mumford Nine Offer Spirited Competition

With an assist from Dame Fortune, the baseball team, coached by Mr. Harold Grove, finished its 1955 season with a four won, four lost record.

The unexpected assist came from Eastern, which defeated Mumford 8-5, when a member of their team was declared ineligible and the decision was reversed.

Mumford's defeats by Southeastern, Denby, Pershing, and Cass were offset by the forfeited win from Eastern and wins over Northern, Wilbur Wright and Northeastern.

Cheerleaders Sparked School Spirit

Galoshes, rain coats, mittens, and a sturdy set of vocal cords were standard equipment for this years' girls' cheerleading squad. Rain or shine the cheerleaders were found at all Mumford athletic events, sparking the teams on to greater efforts.

Coached by Miss Lois Holland, the girls practiced faithfully and worked to originate new and better cheers.

Field Hockey Team Staged Strong Finish

Merle Cady stops to shoot.

Despite a slow start, the girls' field hockey team, coached by Miss Eleanor Dunn, came up strongly in their last four games to finish the season with a 3-2-1 record.

Suffering their only defeats in their first two games with Cooley and Southwestern, the girls rallied for victories over Cody, Bloomfield Hills, and Northwestern. The season's only tie was with Highland Park.

Of special satisfaction to the team was its victory over the heavily favored Bloomfield Hills team.

VARSITY—Row one: S. Sanders, M. Cady, W. Wheeker, S. Resk, B. Lawrence.

Row two: P. Nikites, manager; G. Flowers, A. Bartold, B. Nauman, L. Beckwith, B. Pervznar, S. Ashley, J. Hill, manager; Miss E. Dunn, coach.

You'll hear that remark many times about telephone girls. Most people recognize that girls who work for Michigan Bell are not only attractive, but also smart and useful citizens.

When Jean started her job, she had no telephone experience. But she was trained with other beginners by friendly, understanding supervisors. Today she's proud of her work; enjoys a fine salary, vacations with pay, regular wage increases, and many new friends.

Jean was delighted from the very first by the clean, pleasant surroundings, by the regularly scheduled mid-morning and midafternoon "breaks" for relaxing in comfortable lounge rooms. And she found the company thoughtful and considerate in so many ways, such as sending girls home in taxis when they worked the late evening shift.

Telephone work offers many advantages! Why not get in touch with us now? Find out more about the interesting jobs from which you can choose after graduation—customer representative, telephone operator, accounting and clerical work.

THE LAST WORD . . .

On this final page I want to acknowledge my gratefulness to those who helped me make the yearbook a reality. As a team, the editorial staff worked many hours to take pictures, write copy, lay out pages and proof-read type. During this time the business staff sold advertising, promoted subscriptions and balanced the budget. In short, everyone worked hard and without complaint.

I sincerely hope that we have succeeded in bringing you a record which will always remind you of the activities, friendships and even some of the merriment of the past year. I also want to wish the 1957 staff a successful year and trust that they, too, will find their task as rewarding as we did.

Phyllis
